

Harlan Seessengood Ready For B-29 Assignment

 aug. 2, '45

Corporal Harlan Seessengood is here for a furlough with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Reese and other Newton relatives and friends, after having completed training in a gunnery school at Fort Myers, Fla.

He is to report to an air base at Lincoln, Nebr. on August 11 where he will be assigned as a crew member on a B-29 and expects to soon see service over Japan.

Mrs. Seessengood who has been with him in Florida accompanied him home and will likely remain in Newton after he leaves for Nebraska.
