Camp Blanding, Florida.—Corporal Josie C. Reed of Company A, Fourth Tank batallion, has reported to the "green project," an Air Lift Distribution Center at Camp Blanding, according to an announcement made by Major M. S. Edelstein, commanding officer of the center.

Corporal Reed was in a recent shipment of men who were returned to the United States from the European Theatre of Operations, via Miami, by planes of the Air Transport Command.

Returnees passing through the "green project" are sorted for transfer to a reception center of their own choosing. This choice is made by the men while they are still overseas, and is usually based upon the place where they desire to spend their returnee furlough.

He spent twenty-nine months overseas, and is now looking forward to an enjoyable visit with his many friends and relatives.

Mrs. Glen Bruner of Willow Hill has received a box containing souvenirs from the South Pacific from her husband, First Class Seaman Bruner. The box contained a grass skirt, grass mat, grass hat, grass handbag, two Jap knives, piece of Japanese airplane, a string of native beads, several cartridge cases, a small box of shark teeth, two cat eyes, several Jap money notes and two pieces of our money, issued before Japan took the Philippines.

Glen and his brother, Luther James Bruner, boatswain's mate third class, are both in the same port. Glenn had seen his brother's ship and was in hopes he would see his brother soon.

Private Wilford French is home on a thirty day furlough with his wife, daughter Marlene and son Keith at Newton. He has the Combat Infantryman's badge, the European, African, Middle Eastern Theatre ribbon with two battle stars and the Purple Heart medal.

He brought with him and has on exhibition at the Press office three 7.65 millimeter (.32 caliber) German pistol bullets, a bronze one franc and an aluminum two franc coin from France, and two German Reichsbank notes.

Private First Class Lloyd Jones returned to Camp Grant, last Sunday after spending a thirty day furlough with his wife and his mother, Mrs. G. L. Jones of Greenup. He has served the past nine months in the European Theatre of War with the Ninetieth Chemical Mortar battalion. He was with the First and Third army.

From Camp Grant, he will go to Fort Jackson, South Carolina, to receive more training.

Mrs. Charles Ray Lewis of Amarillo, Texas, has spent the last three weeks visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Lewis of Wheeler, and other relatives. She left Thursday to join her husband, Aviation Cadet Lewis, who is taking his pre-flight training at, Amarillo Army Air Field in Texas.
