

Aug. 24-1945

Captain John S. Wright is shown here receiving the Bronze Star medal from Brigadier General George I. Back in Italy recently. (Story on Page One.) Captain Wright is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Wright of Newton and is a former history teacher in the Newton Community high school. He was a member of the faculty of Illinois college at Jacksonville when he entered the service in 1942. His wife, Mrs. Lucille Wright, recently resigned as a commercial teacher at the Newton Community high school.