

SGT. CLOYCE L. HUNT

CAMP 'PERSONALITY'

FORMER CIRCUIT CLERK RATES IN FT. SHERIDAN PAPER

1/4/45
"The Tower," official publication of the Fort Sheridan army post near Chicago, in its last issue termed T/Sgt. Cloyce L. Hunt of Newton as "The Personality of the Week." Sgt Hunt will be remembered as a former Jasper county school teacher and circuit clerk for Jasper county at the time of his enlistment in the service. The article from "The Tower" follows:

T/Sgt. Hunt's present job is acting top kick for the Special Training Unit, Company "F". No matter how much excitement or confusion there may be 'round, Sgt. Hunt is always found in a calm and collective state . . . ready to take care of you with a pleasant voice and smile. His knack in getting 'along with the men' is probably attributed to his wide experience with people in his political experience.

When Hunt has time, he likes hunting and fishing . . . however he's a busy man 'round the post these days . . . his evenings are taken up with his duties as manager of the Post bowling alleys.

T/Sgt. C. Hunt is married and lives on the post.
