

Harold Eubank

Is Missing in

Action Near Duren

Jan. 5, 1945

Private First Class Eubank Is
Reported Missing in Germany
Since December 12 Near Duren

Highway Commissioner Ernest Eubank of Willow Hill vicinity has received word from the War Department that his son, Private First Class Harold E. Eubank, has been missing in Germany near Duren since December 12. He was in the Eighty-third Infantry division, attached to the First army.

Recently he sent his father some German souvenirs he had obtained in the Aachen area.

Mr. Eubank has two other sons and two daughters, Mrs. Theora Ireland and Mrs. Naomi Gifford of Willow Hill, Roy Eugene Eubank at home, and Robby, adopted by a cousin at Detroit, Michigan, when his mother died.