

Son Of Mrs. Crane

Wounded In Germany

Mrs. Joe Crane has received word that her son, Pfc. Everett Pittman, of Watseka, Ill., has been wounded in Germany and had been taken to an army hospital in Delaware.

The message did not tell the extent of his injuries, but since it stated that he was not able to see for a time, it is thought it might have been a severe wound in the head.