

TELEPHONED HERE FROM SWITZERLAND

Oct. 9, 1945

Private First Class Robert Worcester, who was in Switzerland on a seven days' furlough, telephoned his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Worcester of Newton, from Switzerland, Friday evening. The call came through about 8:30 and was as clear as if Bob had been in the same room, Mr. Worcester said.

"It was quite a thrill to hear Bob's voice from Switzerland," he said. "He asked what time it was here and I said 8:30 p. m. 'It's 3:30 a. m. here,' he replied. 'I put in the call last Saturday and they called me today that it would go through tonight'."

Bob is with the army of occupation in Germany at this time.
