

— F —

SERVE DINNER FOR LIEUTENANT MAXWELL

1945

Willow Hill, September 18. — A group of relatives and friends gathered at Eidson Park, Willow Hill, Sunday, to welcome Lieutenant Otis Maxwell. A bountiful dinner was served and everyone present spent a very enjoyable day.

Lieutenant Maxwell returned home from Fort Bragg, North Carolina, where his family had been with him. He was in the army three years and eight months. He was at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, for one year, where he received officers' training. He was sent overseas, landed in Casablanca, North Africa, left Bizerte, landed in Southern Italy, fought through to the Arno river, north of Rome. He was in action from there to Southern France and into Germany, serving with the Fifth and Seventh armies. He was reconnaissance officer and forward observer. He was in five major campaigns and received an honorable discharge at Fort Bragg. Those present for the occasion were:

Lieutenant and Mrs. Maxwell and children Judy and Craig; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Foltz and children, Bobbie, Nita, Karen and Dickey; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Phillips and son Larry; Mr. and Mrs. James Higgins, Miss Betty Henry; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wade; Mr. and Mrs. Rolla B. Cramer; Mr. and Mrs. George McNair; Mr. and Mrs. John Dillman; Mr. and Mrs. Hallie Hunt; Mrs. Rosa Hunt; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McDaniel; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Foltz and children Carol and Roy Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Michl and children Connie and Eddie; Mr. and Mrs. Dolph Maxwell.

Mr. and Mrs. William Fear; Mrs. Rosemary Eubank and son Michael; and Mr. and Mrs. Loren Heady were afternoon callers.