

Abraham Lincoln was born in 1809 in Kentucky

Abraham lived in Illinois when we was young.

Abraham Lincoln worked in a general store and was a lawyer

Abraham Lincoln lived in the White House when he was president.

The Civil War was 1861-1865. It was over slavery

Lincoln was shot by John Wilkes Booth in a theatre by a pistol

Slavers were often not allowed to go to school, worked all week, had torn clothing and did physical labor.

