

Note from the Editor:

Studies on Asia is Moving

Studies on Asia will move to a new home, and will have a new editor beginning October 2015.

As I look back on the past five years, I'm so grateful for the authors who contributed to the journal, reviewers who took time out of their busy schedules to comment on the articles, guest editors who worked with us on special issues, members of the editorial board whose support was vital to the publication of the journal, editorial assistants who worked hard to ensure the regular publication, and readers who got on board with Studies on Asia and stayed with us as we've evolved. Thanks to the Midwest Conference on Asian Affairs (MCAA) for providing me the opportunity to revive the journal in 2010 and continue to make changes. It was an exciting and learning experience for me.

I may be saying goodbye, but I'm leaving the journal in the more-than-capable hands of Professor Jinhee Lee of Eastern Illinois University who will lead the Board of Editors. The new home of the journal is <https://castle.eiu.edu/studiesonasia/> and the email address is studiesonasia@eiu.edu

Thank you.
