

The British Impact

By Nick

The British felt they superior to the Indians. The British made people in India like slaves. The British treated the people of India poorly. They put taxes on them. They made the people of India live in poor housing. The British threw Gandhi out of the first class compartment of the train. Because of all this, Gandhi wanted to start his non-violent movement.

